

EMPLOYMENT APPEAL TRIBUNAL

Appeals No EA-2022-001347-NLD and EA-2023-000545-NLD

EA-2022-001347-NLD

BEFORE

THE HONOURABLE MR JUSTICE SHELDON IN CHAMBERS

IN THE MATTERS of Appeals under Section 21(1) of the Employment
Tribunals Act 1996 from the decisions of an Employment Tribunal sitting at London South and sent to the parties on 16 November 2022 and 26 April 2023

BETWEEN:

Dr C Day

Appellant

- and -

Lewisham and Greenwich NHS Trust

Respondent

Pursuant to section 85A Courts Act 2003 and the Remote Observation and Recording (Courts and Tribunals) Regulations 2022

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The persons listed in the schedule below be permitted to observe the full hearing on 01 and 02 July 2025 on a video link to be sent by the Employment Appeal Tribunal (EAT).
2. No person will be permitted to watch or listen to the transmission without first, when identifying themselves to the EAT, providing their full name and their email address.
3. Any person given access during the transmission must conduct themselves appropriately and in particular in accordance with any requirements, direction or instructions of the judge for persons observing the proceedings.
4. Any person may apply on notice for this Order to be varied or set aside.

REASONS

The various applicants have good reason to wish to observe the proceedings but face a variety of obstacles and challenges to attending in person. In the circumstances, and in furtherance of the overriding objective, it is appropriate that remote access to the hearing be provided
